

Alteritas TRAINING SCHOOL

Tools for the Study of Ancient Populations
and their Interactions

3 – 7 September 2018

Alteritas, Via Seminario 8, Verona (Italy)

Alteritas
TRAINING SCHOOL

- Ethno-archaeology
- Dendrochronology and Dendroprovenance
- Archaeometry and Archaeology of Production
- Underwater Archaeology
- Archaeological Forensic Facial Reconstruction
- PC-tools for Humanities
- Seriation tools for Archaeology and Epigraphy
- Introduction to Corpus Language Databases

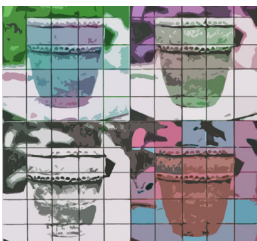

Interested students are invited to send their application with a CV by May 15, 2018 to info@alteritas.it.

Eligible candidates will be announced at the end of Mai 2018.

Alteritas TRAINING SCHOOL

Alteritas is glad to announce the Training School "Tools for the study of ancient populations and their interactions". The TS is targeted to under-graduate, graduate students and PhD candidates of Classics, Archaeology, Prehistory and Ancient History, as well as early career investigators of neighbouring disciplines, who are interested to deepen their knowledge and tools on the study of the past, with a special focus on interactions among ancient populations. The school provides training on subjects usually not covered by university career, though founding complements to the study of the ancient world. Disciplines such as: Ethno-archaeology, Dendrochronology and Dendroprovenance, Underwater Archaeology, Archaeometry and Archaeology of Production, Archaeological Forensic Facial Reconstruction, Seriation Tools for Archaeology and Epigraphy, Introduction to Corpus Language Databases, PC-tools for Humanities will be offered in the form of a full immersion training, 6-7 Hours/day. Official language of the School will be English. Lectures in Italian will be also given. The Training School activation is subject to the inscription of at least 20 Students. The fee of 800 € is comprehensive of training (i.e. access to all lectures and support material), full accommodation at the Seminario Vescovile in Verona from Sunday 2 to Friday 7 September 2018 and two city excursions.

Population	Sample	Year	Location	Material	Analysis	Notes
...

ALTERITAS – Interazioni tra i popoli – a research institution accredited by the Italian Ministry of University and Scientific Research (MIUR) – is devoted to the study of interactions among peoples of different origin, language, culture and tradition, in the past as well as in the present. It is also accredited by the Veneto region as organization devoted with continuity to migration issues. Thanks to a network of about 50 scholars from different disciplines and to the collaboration of many research partners and institutions, Alteritas is engaged in research projects characterized by with a wide range of topics and approaches in humanities and social sciences. All projects are aimed at relating the past to the present, considering migration and interaction among people constant traits of the mankind. On this topics Alteritas also organises meetings, conferences, thematic workshops and book presentations (see www.alteritas.it).

Alteritas is involved in the COST Action Ancient European Languages and Writings (IS 1407, 2015-2018).